2022 Best Friend Award

Jon Klepzig and Bonnie Jurgens, President of Friends of the Library.

Congratulations to Jon Klepzig, honored with the 2022 Best Friend Award by the Friends of the Library. During the short award ceremony on October 24th, PSPLD Director Cindy Boehlke shared, "Our sincere thanks to Jon for offering his knowledge and skills with renovations and small repairs. He's been a great resource for the library, and we appreciate his efforts and expertise."

Scooby Doo. Where Are You?

(Pssst....he's at Family Reading Night.)
Join us for Family Reading Night All Week Long!
November 14th –19th, during library hours.

Help solve a mystery at the library! Use your investigative skills to help Scooby the gang battle through ghostly ectoplasm, build the mystery machine, help Velma find her glasses, and more! Of course, we can't forget to feed Scooby some Scooby Snacks. And make sure to stop by our groovy photo area to remember your adventure with Mystery, Inc!

Too much Turkey? Visit the James Park Storywalk to read "The Ugly Pumpkin," after your Thanksgiving feast. Don't forget to pick a book from the Little Free Library at James Park!

Activities geared to 2nd grade and up.
Younger children welcome with parent help.

STEAM Club

Project "Bristle Bot"
Sat. 11/12, 11 am in Plains
Tues, 11/15, 6pm in Ashland

Who knew a toothbrush could be so fun?

New & Improved Our energy-saving LED lighting installation is complete at both locations. Stop in to see our lighter, brighter spaces! Ashland Library's staff is also enjoying a renovated kitchen and break room. Many thanks to Jon Klepzig for his handyman skills!
